

CONNECTICUT CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS

CCIA is pleased to announce that nominations are now being accepted for the 2012 Community Service Awards Program in which member companies are recognized for outstanding contributions made to their communities.

Purpose of the Award:

CCIA recognizes their members who are involved in and committed to various community projects that enhance and benefit the lives of Connecticut citizens on a daily basis. CCIA will recognize these outstanding community service projects at the 2012 Annual Membership Meeting to be held on Wednesday, December 5, 2012 at the Aqua Turf Club.

Eligibility:

All CCIA members in good standing are eligible to submit a Nomination Form by 5:00 pm, Friday, November 9, 2012. There is no fee.

Eligible projects are those completed since last year's awards.

Nomination Submission Criteria:

- Completion of the Community Service Award Nomination Form
- Project Summary to include:
 - Community need for this project.
 - Why the project is deserving of this award.
 - Financial commitment (include cost of materials, supplies, and staff labor).
 - Timeline of project.
 - If partnered with other organizations, include this information.
 - Outcome and benefits to the community.
 - No more than 750 words.
- Provide nominee's logo, color JPEG, and five digital, color photos of the project on a CD or via E-mail to akavanaugh@ctconstruction.org.

Submission Deadline:

Nominations should be sent to Alison Kavanaugh at CCIA, 912 Silas Deane Highway, Wethersfield, CT 06109 or via E-mail at akavanaugh@ctconstruction.org by 5:00 pm, Friday, November 9, 2012.

Questions concerning CCIA's Community Service Award Program should be directed to Alison Kavanaugh at 860 529-6855 or akavanaugh@ctconstruction.org
