

▶ 2014 CCIA Ethics and Compliance Summit

Thursday, May 15, 2014 | 8:00 am - 12:00 pm

Sheraton Hartford South, 100 Capital Boulevard, Rocky Hill

No cost | Registration Required

Continental Breakfast with fresh fruit, pastries, coffee and tea will be served.

Registration begins at 7:30 am

▶ Program Includes:

Tracey Mills, Assistant Regional Director

Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs

New OFCCP Regulations (Effective March 24, 2014)

Regarding applicants and the hiring of individuals with disabilities and veterans status.

Richard Strauss, Executive Director

Connecticut Academy of Science and Engineering

Connecticut Disparity Study

Phase I - Findings (released December 2013)

Phase 2 - Progress

Jack Callahan, CPA, Partner,

Construction Industry Practice Leader

CohnReznick

Best practices from the perspective of an integrity monitor.

This Ethics and Compliance Summit is designed:

- ▶ for contractors, subcontractors and designers and all their employees responsible for training and compliance;
- ▶ to keep you up-to-date;
- ▶ to provide tools to improve your company's program in all sectors of state and federally funded projects.

Shaping the future of the construction industry

This Free Program is Courtesy of the following Program Sponsors:

2014 CCIA Ethics and Compliance Summit | No Cost - Registration Required ...by 5/9/14

No Cost Thanks to our Program Sponsors

Return Registration to CCIA by Friday, May 9th
Or Register On-line - www.ctconstruction.org/ethicsandcompliancesummit

E-mail: chall@ctconstruction.org

F: 860-563-0616

P: 860-529-6855

CCIA | 912 Silas Deane Highway, Suite 112
Wethersfield, CT 06109

Contact Name _____

Company _____

Phone Number _____

Email Address _____

No. of Attendees _____

Attendees Names _____
